

ELIZABETH GRAVES'

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

GAITED HORSE CLINIC

on

JULY 18 and 19, 2009 AT 9:00 A.M.

RANCHO EAST, RANCHO SANTA FE, CA.

{San Diego County}

This is a rare opportunity for California gaited horse owners and riders to learn from one of the top gaited horse clinicians in the United States!

Elizabeth's clinics are well known and popular throughout the United States and Canada for being informative and motivational. Liz uses positive reinforcement for the horse and rider, working with each team at their current level. Liz addresses each horse's unique conformation and natural way of going rather than applying the same training principles to all horses of a particular breed. Liz stresses the importance of proper saddle fit and use of the correct bit for each individual horse. Liz has published countless articles which can be viewed on her website.
